George Pugsley , Justice of the Peace and farmer, section 29, Wilmington Township, was born Jan. 28, 1838, a son of Joseph Pugsley, a native of England, who .came to America in 1845 and located in Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

Mr. Pugsley was reared a farmer but obtained by his own exertion a good education, attending the seminaries at Chagrin Falls and Twinsburg, Ohio. When seventeen years of age he began teaching and has taught every winter save three since that time. Many began at A, B, C, and continued under his instruction at the same school until they were qualified to teach and became among the best teachers of the county.

He came to Indiana in April, 1860, and settled on his present farm, which was very heavily timbered. He has cleared his land, doing all the work himself, and now has a good farm under excellent cultivation. Mr. Pugsley has been four times elected Justice of the Peace in his township and is now serving the fourth term.

He was married in March, 1860, to Caroline Bailey, daughter of Cyrus Bailey. To them have been born ten children, nine of whom are living — Cora L., Mary E., Reuben J., Eugene E., George E., Emma J., Walter G., William H., Laura E. and an infant son.

Mrs. Pugsley and three daughters, Cora L., Mary E. and Emma J., are members of the Methodist Episcopal church.

PUTT, George

George Putt, one of the most prosperous and prominent of the early settlers of De Kalb County, was born in Berks County, Pa., Nov. 19, 1814, the eldest son of Jacob and Catharine (Shaffer) Putt, natives of Pennsylvania, of English and German descent.

He was reared in his native State, and when fifteen years of age began driving a freight team over the mountains, a vocation he followed fifteen years. About 1835 he settled in Lebanon County, Pa., and in 1841 moved to Stark County, Ohio, and eleven months later, in 1842, came to Indiana and entered forty acres of land, and bought forty more in De Kalb County. It was located in the dense timber, but he went to work and soon had enough cleared to build a log cabin and raise a crop. He has been successful and to his land has added forty acres till now he has 120 acres of choice land, all well improved.

He was married Nov. 15, 1835, to Sarah Ann, daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Polm) Getz, natives of Pennsylvania, of German descent. To them were born two children — Levi and Joanna Elizabeth Catharine, wife of John Anstett. Mrs. Putt died Sept. 9, 1884. She, as has also Mr. Putt, had been a member of the German Reform church from her youth. Politically, Mr. Putt is a Democrat.

Just found this info:

*The Waterloo Press, August 20, 1908: The 10th of August being the 74th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rachel Harmes her relatives and friends came one day ahead of time Sunday morning, August 9. They gathered at the home to the number of 34 with well filled baskets and brought their gifts with them. They found grandma had gone to church, which is her custom whenever her health will permit, and upon her return home she found the house full, and also the table with the good things which came in the baskets, from which a dinner was served and later ice cream. Those present were Mrs. Christina Ziegler, Mrs. William High, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Purd High and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putt and baby of Hudson, Mrs. James Siberts, Fred Kalb, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kalb and two children, of Waterloo; Mr. and Mrs. Perry High and two children, Glen Furnish, Mr. and Mrs. James Triplett and four children of Auburn, Miss Marie Stickley of Pleasant Lake, Warren and Ray Harmes of Corunna. A good time was enjoyed and all departed wishing grandma many more happy returns of the day.

*The Waterloo Press, November 21, 1912: MRS. RACHEL S. HARMES - The life of Mrs. Rachel Harmes, who lived with her daughter Mrs. Eva M. Triplett south of town, came to a sudden ending last Friday morning, a result of an injury from a fall sustained Monday night, November 11. She stepped out on the porch and in returning to the house she missed the door in the darkness and falling, she being rather portly, sustained the injury of three broken ribs, a broken left wrist and internal injuries. Her maiden name was Shatto, and her first husband David A. McBride died in the service of his country near Memphis, Tennessee in 1863. Her second husband, Frederick Harmes, died October 21, 1886. The deceased was a pensioner from service of her first husband, David A. McBride. She leaves surviving her two daughters, Mrs. Eva M. Triplett and Mrs. Emma Gruh who resided in Michigan. She was a pioneer resident near Cedar Lake, Smithfield township, and the funeral occurred at the Cedar Lake church Sunday at 11 a.m.

Rachel Samantha Shatto, daughter of John and Margaret Leonard Shatto, was born August 10, 1834 in Deerfield township, Portage County, Ohio. She lived there about five years, then moved with her parents to Pennsylvania, Mercer County, and lived there one year. She then moved to Trumbull County, Ohio, and lived there two years. Then to Stark County, Ohio, and lived there six years, and then she with her parents moved to DeKalb County, Indiana in 1850 and made their home near Cedar Lake.

On October 5, 1851 she was married to David A. McBride with whom she lived until the breaking out of the Civil War when the husband was called to fight for his country, from which he never returned alive. She also did what she could for her country in the way of furnishing the Sanitary Department at Waterloo a great amount of articles such as bandages, pillows, etc. for the sick and deserving soldiers. To these two there were born two children, Emma L. and Mary L., the latter having died at the age of eight years. She was married, the second time, to Frederick Harmes on December 25, 1864, with whom she lived until his death, which occurred October 21, 1886. To this union was born one child, Eva M., with whom she was living at the time of her death. She leaves to mourn her departure two children namely: Mrs. Emma L. Brugh of Traverse City, Michigan, and Mrs. Eva M. Triplett of Auburn, Indiana; a stepson, Joel E. Harmes of Prairie City, Iowa; also a step grandson whom she raised from infancy and who was loved by her as her own son, also 11 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren, besides a host of neighbors and friends who join in sympathy with the family.The subject of this sketch was baptized when a young girl by Father Hadsell and united with the Church of Christ and has been a faithful Christian all these years. Nothing kept her from church or Sunday School except some reason she could give her Savior.

On October 21, 1908, she broke up housekeeping on account of the infirmities of old age, and went to live with her granddaughter, Mrs. Purd High, near Hudson, Indiana where she lived about eighteen months.

On December 29, 1910, she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Eva Triplett, where she died at the age of 78 years, 3 months and 5 days.

Her heart was always with the church at Cedar Lake and her old home near Cedar Lake, where she had lived for over thirty years. She has been a faithful worshiper at the Stroh school house, and although at first the faces there were all strange, she soon made many warm friends.

Her death was due to an accident from falling down cellar, in which she was very painfully injured. All was done that human hands could do, but to no avail. She was ready and willing and wanted to go home and expressed herself many times by saying that if it was God's will she was ready. She was very patient during her intense suffering.

She has been a resident of DeKalb county for over sixty years, and although her life work is done, her influence will still go on, and we know that she is now where there is no more sorrow or pain or homesickness or trouble of any kind. God grant that we may live as near to the Savior as she did.

A short service was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Triplett, then her friends followed her body to her old home church at Cedar Lake, where the funeral services were conducted by Elder A. Z. Shepherd, of Ashley, assisted by Elder Nickerson, of Auburn, and Elder Thomas, pastor of the Cedar Lake church. She was buried at Cedar Lake cemetery, with funeral arrangements in charge of R. C. Dilgard of Auburn.

CARD OF THANKS - We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks to the kind neighbors who assisted us in the sickness, death and burial of our dear mother and grandmother, also for the beautiful flowers and for the sympathy of her many friends. - Mrs. Emma Brugh, Mrs. Eva Triplett, Mr. Fred Kalb and Grandchildren.

15 GENERATION PEDIGREE CHART

It is recommended that a chart be filled out initially as a work copy. Then after checking for accuracy a final copy can be typed or done in ball point. If desired the final copy can be done with the front side being on one chart and the back side on another chart. Then both charts can be laid side by side to show all information at once. This chart has been punched so that it can be folded and put either in a three-ring binder or in the two different 8½" × 14" binders.
